

ATTEND EASTERN COLLEGE . . . Area students on the campus of Pembroke College, the women's college in Brown University, Providence, R.I., are members of the first class in Brown's third century of higher education. Founded in 1764, Brown, the 7th oldest college in the nation, is celebrating its Bicentennial during the 1964-65 year. Pictured, from left, are Carolyn Yale, daughter of the Charles Yales of Altadena; Katherine S. Walker, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Peter S. Walker, 5013 Paseo de Pablo, Torrance; Sharon F. Billon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Billon, 4040 Via Opata, Palos Verdes; Eleanor T. Robertson, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Edward H. Robertson, 405 Via Los Miradores, Hollywood Riviera, and Nancy Gowen, daughter of the Thomas Gowens of Fullerton.

Woman's Club Sections Occupied with Projects

Literature Section of the Torrance Woman's Club will hold its first meeting of the 1964-65 club year on Monday, Nov. 23, beginning at 10 a.m., at the home of Mrs. James Laird, 20545 Vaccaro St., Torrance.

Mrs. Neil Humphrey, chairman, invites all interested club members to attend.

The Garden Section will hold a workshop Tuesday morning, 10 a.m., at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. Gift items for the Christmas Bazaar to be held Dec. 9 will be completed, according to Mrs. Victor E. Benstead, chairman.

At the regular meeting of the club held on Wednesday, Nov. 18, members voted to send a donation of $25 to the Torrance Tournament of Roses Association to help defray expenses of the Rose Parade float.

Christmas gifts for the needy children at McClaran Hall will be collected at the next two regular meetings of the club. Any person interested in sending a gift please contact Mrs. James Laird, chairman of the project.

A certificate of appreciation was presented to the club by Mrs. Alma Smith, Girls' State chairman of the Bert S. Crossland Auxiliary, for the financial assistance given to their 1964 program.

Chanukah Party Set For Dec. 5

Single Adult Group of Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo, are having a festive Chanukah cocktail party on Saturday, Dec. 5, at 8:30 p.m. This gala event is to be held at the residence of Miss Naomi Backer, 5206 Paseo del Pavon, Torrance.

Refreshments and dancing will be enjoyed. The Single Adult Group is composed of single persons from 25 to 42 years, and all proceeds derived from social activities are given to charity. The group meets monthly and plans its annual membership drive in January.

For further information and reservations for the cocktail party, please contact Miss Sylvia Laxineta.

Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Will Meet Nov. 24

Alpha Delta Pi South Bay Alumnae will meet Tuesday evening, Nov. 24, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert L. Hartsfield, 533 Paseo Lunado, Palos Verdes. Co-hostesses Mrs. Charles Penny of Redondo and Mrs. Keith Moody of Torrance will provide refreshments.

Mrs. Grant Laney of San Pedro will conduct the business meeting at which plans for the annual Christmas party will be made. The party will be held Sunday, Dec. 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Roland, 5 Palomino Lane, Rolling Hills Estates.

Mrs. Robert Wattenbarger of Miraleste, will report on the newly-formed "Couples Bridge Group" which meets the second Friday of each month.

Program for the evening meeting will be on home decorations presented by Mrs. Hazel Rabbitt of California Home Furnishings.

All Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae in the South Bay area are invited to attend.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS . . . New officers for the South Bay Federated Republican Women's Club were installed for the coming year at a luncheon meeting held at the Indian Village last Thursday. Relinquishing the presidency, Mrs. Cecil Kenyon hands the gavel to Mrs. Richard Gracey, new president at the right, as three other new officers, center from left, Mmes. Gordon McFarlane, James Foster and Floyd Moffitt, look on.

Ryerson-Moran Nuptials Read in Baptist Services

Miss Carol Marcia Ryerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Marten Ryerson, 1402 Acacia Ave., exchanged marriage vows with Jack Frank Moran on Friday, Sept. 25, at the Torrance Baptist Temple. The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moran of Los Angeles.

Rev. Joseph W. Morton officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Billy Boves played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Kathleen Morris of Long Beach who sang "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length white lace gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, bateau neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was attached to a crown of crystals and pearls. The bride carried a white Bible and a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. James Philip Schuyler of Glendale served her sister as matron of honor. Gowned in poudre blue lace, Mrs. Schuyler wore a matching tulle headpiece and carried a bouquet of blue carnations. Miss Kirby Ely of Torrance was bridesmaid, wearing a pale pink satin gown and carrying pink carnations.

Ted Austin of San Pedro served as best man and ushers were Gary Watkins and Ronald Lara of San Pedro.

A reception was held at the church following the wedding. Miss Sheri Ely was in charge of the bride's book.

Assisting with the reception were Mmes. Joseph W. Morton, William Barnhill, Otis Westley and Zeb Burchette. Miss Janet Skaggs presided at the punch bowl.

Following a wedding trip in southern California, Mr. and Mrs. Moran are residing in San Pedro.

Party Honors Mrs. R. Black

Mrs. J. Ralph Black was the honoree at a surprise birthday luncheon last Monday given by Mrs. Ed Brandt at her home, 22701 Fonthill.

The birthday celebrant was presented with gifts, after which the hostess served a luncheon. A decorated birthday cake was served after the luncheon.

Sharing in the surprise party with the hostess and honoree were Mmes. Richard Cramolini, Ronald Jones, Hal Korrell, Haig Marashlian, Vic Abrams, Herb Dugger and Richard Playstead.

Meets Wednesday

Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347 will meet Wednesday evening, Nov. 25 at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. Vena Bartleson, noble grand, will be in charge. Martha Oden is chairman for the evening.

MRS. JERRY R. BLAYLOCK

... Recites Vows

(Crotty Photography)

Thomas-Blaylock Names Are Linked in Marriage

Keystone Baptist Church was the setting for the early evening wedding on Nov. 7, in which Miss Ann Marie Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selven Thomas, 302 E. 219th St., plighted her marriage promises with Jerry Ray Blaylock. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Blaylock of San Pedro.

The bridal gown was of white satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline re-embroidered with pearls. The full skirt of unpressed pleats fell into a chapel train. A satin pillbox, ornamented with pearls, held the silk illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white carnations and orchids. Mr. Thomas escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Betty Castagnola, in moss green velvet and carrying yellow carnations, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Kay Castanzaro, Linda June Blaylock, and Cheryl Wells. They wore dark blue velvet and carried pale blue carnations. Sherri Thomas, in a long green velvet dress, was flower girl.

Buddy Thomas stood as best man and ushers were Richard E. Castagnola, Larry Wells and Steve Marino. James Thomas was ring bearer.

Rev. G. B. Leathers officiated at the marriage. Mrs. Viola Guessman, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Linda Blakymore, soloist.

A reception was held in the church patio after which the newlyweds went to Malibu Beach for a honeymoon. The new home is in San Pedro.

The bride was graduated from Carson High School and her husband is a San Pedro High graduate.

Don Paups In Mexico City For Tourney

Mr. and Mrs. Don Paup, 3525 Emerald, Torrance, are spending this week in Mexico City where Mr. Paup is playing on the United States Badminton team competing in the Mexican National Tournament.

The Paups left by plane last Monday morning and will return this evening.

Expect Guests

Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts, 2334 W. 241 St., whose daughter, Christine, will be married to Bob Broadus on Dec. 5, are expecting relatives to arrive for the wedding. Among them will be the bride's sister, Mrs. Paul Henderson and family of Beebe, Ark.; Mrs. Vernon Roberts of Montecello, Ark. and the bride's grandfather, J. Y. Roberts of Nashville, Ark.

Noble Grands To Plan Party

Past Noble Grands Club, Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet at the home of Anna Mae Isbell, 1808 Andree, on Monday evening, Nov. 23, at 7:45 p.m.

Plans will be made for the Christmas party and other business. All members are requested to be present by Stelma Norris, president.

A SEASON TO REMEMBER . . . Youngsters of patients at the Long Beach Veterans Hospital will be remembered again this year by Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters, as they join the American Legion Auxiliary in supplying toys, for the ninth consecutive year. Busy making stuffed dolls are, from left, Mmes. Joseph Capello, hospital sewing chairman, who reports that the "one toy per member" goal has been reached and that toys are valued at $143. Florence Ovrerne-Laura Dupont and Sid Durham. Mrs. Robert Ste. Marie is grand regent and Mrs. Fred Gervig of Torrance is social welfare chairman. (Press-Herald Photo)

MRS. JACK MORAN
... Recent Bride

Entertains At Coffee For Neighbors

Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham entertained at a neighborhood get-acquainted coffee at her home 1923 Reynosa Dr. recently welcoming several new neighbors. Coffee and pastries were served.

Attending were Mmes. Richard Clutter, June Plummer, Peter Polinski, Bill White, Matt Phillips, Clyde Fitch and Lola McBride.

Club Enjoys 'Potluck' Show

Hi-Neighbors Club held a "potluck" fashion show recently at the home of their president, Mrs. Marvin Lubbin, 2019 W. 180th St.

Members had bid "sight unseen" for costumes and accessories at their previous meeting. For the fashion show, they donned their surprise selections for hilarious results.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Mae Prochut and Mrs. Alice Madden.

PART OF THE PLEDGE . . . A check for $100, representing a part of the Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Dept.'s pledge to the Torrance YMCA building fund, was delivered in person this past week here. Mrs. Denny Haas, recently installed president, joins Mrs. Gilbert Pike, retiring president, in presenting the check to Joe Wilcox of the YMCA. (Press-Herald Photo)